Dear Friends,

We're sure you've heard all about it...

Wilmington's Hometown HoliDazzle!

This spectacular event will kick off the holiday season for Wilmington and Clinton County. The downtown businesses, Chamber of Commerce, Convention and Visitors' Bureau, and many favorite community members and organizations are already involved and committed!

Hometown HoliDazzle is set for November 24, 2007 – the Saturday following Thanksgiving. This will be an EVENT including children's activities, a lighted parade, Santa, street vendors, retailer promotions, entertainment at the Murphy Theatre, and performances around the town.

Now all that's missing is YOU!

We are especially excited to hear from bell choirs and small musical ensembles, cheer/dance troupes, acts that could stay on location or stroll about, and others that feature the special light within our community.

Entertainers are welcome to take advantage of this occasion to promote their talents and venues while contributing to the event's festivities. However, nothing may be sold during the festival without prior approval from the committee.

Attached, please find the Hometown HoliDazzle Entertainment application. Group leader response is needed by September 30, 2007. Performers will be scheduled at various appropriate downtown locations.

Know someone that enjoys an audience? Please pass the word, and encourage all the talented folks you know to join the fun! HoliDazzle is shaping up to be something to write home about!!

Should you have any questions, or wish to obtain a Parade or Vendor application, please contact Keri Jaehnig, by phone at 937-382-4794. Additional information and forms can be accessed at <http://www.culturallyconnectedexperience.com/hometownholidazzle.html>.

Thank you in advance for your supportive reply. We look forward to your participation!

Yours HoliDazzled,
